

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before you, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). I have my home telephone number on our state's Do Not Solicit database.

The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers in that they may solicit to their current customers.

Do not approve CBA's attempts to remove what the citizens of Indiana have spoken up for. Do not allow the companies they represent to harass the citizens of Indiana on our personal time with unwelcome phone calls.

I am a single mother of 3 that spends most of my workday on the telephone. I enjoy coming home to my 3 children, spending time with them, and not being harassed by a ring telephone for services I have not need or desire for.

The citizens of Indiana have spoken. Our constituents in our legislature have heard us. Do not turn a deaf ear to us now by bending to corporation pressure.
